

Fall, 2018

Judges, Week 6

_____—to talk with excessive pride and self-satisfaction about one's achievements, possessions, or abilities. Boasting in oneself is an expression of pride. Humility is defined as the absence of arrogance and boasting and is characterized by submission to God's will.

God tests our _____ for two possible reasons:

1. To help us to see if our faith is real or fake.
2. To strengthen our faith for a task.

Possibly the greatest spiritual _____ for the Israelites and us is that we believe we can save ourselves by our own power.

We never know when God is _____ us in some ordinary experience of life.

God understands our fears and seeks to _____ us in those times of fear.

Before we can become successful _____ we must first become sincere worshippers.

We may not _____ God's plans be we can fully trust Him and His faithfulness.